LIQUIDATING TRUSTEE'S MOTION TO APPROVE
SETTLEMENT WITH MICHELLE AND DAVID HARROLD

Barry E. Mukamal, in his capacity as liquidating trustee ("Liquidating Trustee") for the bankruptcy estates of Palm Beach Finance Partners, L.P. and Palm Beach Finance Partners II, L.P. (collectively, the "Debtors"), by and through undersigned counsel, files this Motion to Approve Settlement with David and Michelle Harrold ("Motion"). In support of this Motion, the Liquidating Trustee states the following:

I. Factual Background

A. The Pre-Petition Activities of the Debtors

1. The Debtors are two hedge funds. Together, David Harrold and Bruce Prevost managed the Debtors' fund raising and investment activities.
2. Pre-petition, Messrs. Harrold and Prevost invested nearly all of the Debtors' funds (approximately $1 billion) in Thomas Petters's purchase order financing activities.
3. In September 2008, several federal law enforcement agencies, including the FBI, executed search warrants at Mr. Petters's offices. Shortly thereafter, it was revealed that Mr.

Petters's business activities were entirely fictitious; instead, Mr. Petters was operating a multi-billion dollar Ponzi scheme.

4. From 2002 through September 2008, David Harrold and his wife Michelle ("Harrolds") received approximately $25 million in transfers (prior to the payment of federal income taxes) from the Debtors and other affiliated entities.

5. Typically, the monies flowed from the Debtors to one of two management entities - Palm Beach Capital Management, LLC or Palm Beach Capital Management, LP (collectively, the "Management Entities") - and then to the Harrolds.

B. The Debtors' Bankruptcy Cases

6. On November 30, 2009, the Debtors filed voluntary petitions under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code. By subsequent Order of this Court, the cases are jointly administered.

7. On January 28, 2010, the Court entered the Agreed Order Directing Appointment of Chapter 11 Trustee and Denying United States Trustee's Motion to Convert Cases to Cases under Chapter 7 [ECF No. 100].

8. On January 29, 2010, the United States Trustee appointed the Liquidating Trustee as Chapter 11 Trustee in both of the Debtors' estates [ECF No. 107].

9. Following his appointment, the Liquidating Trustee and undersigned counsel reviewed the terms of a pre-petition settlement which had been reached between Messrs. Harold and Prevost and the Debtors through a pre-petition chief restructuring officer. After reviewing this settlement, the Liquidating Trustee determined in his business judgment not to seek its approval but rather to commence his own direct due diligence and negotiation with the Harrolds.

10. To that end, the Liquidating Trustee requested and received a host of financial data from the Harrolds including bank and stock account statements for several years, historical transfers for several years and an independent appraisal of their personality.

11. After receiving and analyzing these financial disclosures along with other data, consulting with his accounting and legal professionals and the Liquidating Trust Monitor¹ and the Monitor's legal counsel, the Liquidating Trustee and undersigned counsel engaged in an in-depth negotiation with counsel for the Harrolds. The negotiations took place over a period of months and culminated in the settlement described below ("Settlement"). The economic terms of the Settlement are substantially superior to the earlier pre-petition settlement.

II. Settlement Terms

12. The key points of the Settlement are the following:²

- a) Cash consideration - upon approval of the Settlement, the Harrolds will immediately turn over $1,476,036 to the Debtors.
- b) Mortgage on the Harrolds' homestead property - upon approval of the Settlement, the Harrolds will agree to the recordation of a mortgage on their homestead property in the amount of $1,875,000 to secure a non recourse promissory note ("Note") in the same amount in favor of the Debtors. The Note shall provide for interest at a rate of 5% per annum and will mature in two years from the date of approval of the Settlement with a one year extension period in the event certain enumerated conditions are met.
- c) Entitlement to tax refund - with respect to the Harrolds' 2009 tax return, the Debtors will be entitled to receive 75% of any tax refund issued by the Internal Revenue Service.
- d) Interest in Mr. Harrold's mother's estate - to the extent that Mr. Harrold's mother's estate conveys an interest to the Harrolds or their children, either directly or indirectly, of a value in excess of $100,000, such interest shall be transferred directly to the Liquidating Trustee for the benefit of the Debtors.

² A copy of the settlement agreement is attached as Exhibit 1. To the extent the terms of the agreement differ with the terms set forth in this Motion, the agreement shall control.

- e) Turnover of entities - Mr. Harrold shall turn over his interest in various entities for the benefit of the Debtors (the Liquidating Trustee may decline to accept such interest).
- f) Cooperation and turnover of documents - Mr. Harrold will meet with the Liquidating Trustee and his professionals on a regular basis and additionally, will agree to turn over certain documents which may otherwise be subject to attorney-client privilege.
- g) Consent to judgment - with respect to the Debtors' management entities, Mr. Harrold shall cause such entities to consent to the entry of judgment against them in the amount of any transfers received.
- h) Bar order and covenant not to sue – as a pre-condition for providing the above consideration, the Liquidating Trustee will obtain a bar order in favor of the Harrolds which would bar any limited partners or creditors of the Debtors from suing the Harrolds; additionally, the Liquidating Trustee shall provide the Harrolds with a covenant not to sue.

13. Pursuant to the Second Amended Joint Plan of Liquidation (“Plan”), approved by this Court’s Order dated October 21, 2010 [ECF No. 444], all monetary consideration received in conjunction with the Settlement will be split among the Debtors as follows: 18% to Palm Beach Finance Partners, L.P. and 82% to Palm Beach Finance II, L.P. (“Pro Rata Allocation Formula”).

14. It is important to note that with respect to some of the above consideration being provided by the Harrolds, it is not possible today to gauge their actual value, e.g., the ultimate amount, if any, of the 2009 tax refund or the value of the entities to be turned over (to the extent insolvent, the equity value may be nonexistent). However, the Liquidating Trustee believes it was appropriate to obtain the right to receive these assets.

15. Additionally, in analyzing the Harrolds’ financial condition and available assets, the Liquidating Trustee determined not to seek turn over of household goods, personalty or vehicles because the estates would incur storage, insurance and auction related expenses. Instead, the Liquidating Trustee emphasized obtaining turnover of liquid cash assets and an interest in the Harrolds' unencumbered residence.

16. Finally, in agreeing to the above terms, the Liquidating Trustee considered the availability of certain exemptions to the Harrolds (e.g., Florida's homestead laws) and titling of assets (e.g., tenancy by the entirety).

III. Relief Requested

17. The Liquidating Trustee seeks an Order from this Court (a) approving the Settlement and entry of the bar order and (b) approving the Contingency Fee (as defined below).

18. Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9019 provides in relevant part that [o]n motion...and after a hearing on notice to creditors; the debtor . . . and to such other entities as the Court may designate, the Court may approve a compromise or settlement."

19. Approval of a settlement in a bankruptcy proceeding is within the sole discretion of the Court and will not be disturbed or modified on appeal unless approval or disapproval is an abuse of discretion. In re Arrow Air, 85 BR 891 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 1988).

20. The standards for approval are well settled and require the Court to inquire into the reasonableness of the proposed settlement. See, e.g., Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424 (1968); In re W.T. Grant Co., 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983); Florida Trailer and Equip. Co. v. Deal, 284 F.2d 567, 571 (5th Cir. 1960). The inquiry need only determine whether the settlement falls below the lowest point of the range of reasonableness. See W.T. Grant Co., 699 F.2d at 608; see also In re Martin, 91 F.3d 389 (3rd Cir. 1996); In re Louise's Inc., 211 B.R. 798 (D. Del. 1997) (setting forth considerations by the Court for approval of a settlement, including: (i) the probability of success in litigation, (ii) the likely difficulties in collection; (iii) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience and delay necessarily attending it; and (iv) the paramount interest of the creditors.

A. The Settlement Ought to be Approved

21. Based upon the above legal principles, Liquidating Trustee asserts that the Settlement falls well above the lowest point of the range of reasonableness and thus, should be approved.

Probability of success in litigation

22. The Debtors could assert the following claims against the Harrolds:

- a) Fraudulent transfer against the Harrolds pursuant to §§ 544 and 548: The Debtors could assert claims against the Harrolds (as subsequent transferees) for transfers received by them from the Management Entities. As for Mrs. Harrold, the Debtors would assert claims against her as a subsequent transferee as to any transfer received by her from her husband.
- b) Fraudulent transfer against the Harrolds pursuant to § 541 and Fla. Stat. 726 et seq.: As direct state law creditors of the Management Entities, the Debtors could assert claims against the Harrolds (as initial transferees) for transfers received by them.
- c) Fraudulent transfer against Michelle Harrold pursuant § 541 and Fla. Stat. 726 et seq.: As direct state law creditors of Mr. Harrold, the Debtors could assert claims against Mrs. Harrold (as an initial transferee) for transfers received by her from her husband.
- d) Other Theories: The Debtors could assert claims against the Harrolds under various equitable theories, including unjust enrichment, equitable lien and constructive trust.

23. Although the Liquidating Trustee believes he has strong claims as to all of these theories, the probability of success cannot be gauged with certainty at this stage. Moreover, as addressed below, any judgment(s) regardless of the legal theory would undoubtedly face significant collectability issues. Therefore, the Liquidating Trustee asserts that this factor is not dispositive in determining whether the Settlement should be approved.

Collectability

24. The collectability of the Harrolds is a very significant and critical factor militating in favor of approval of the settlement.

25. First, it is assumed that Mr. Harrold's future earning capacity and job prospects have been markedly impaired given the Debtors' massive losses. As such, it is unlikely that the pool of assets held by the Harrolds (as reflected in the exhibits to the Settlement) will materially expand. If the above claims are litigated, along with separate lawsuits being filed by other parties, it is all but certain that the assets subject to execution will be significantly diminished through defense costs, and thus, limit the collectability of any judgment.

26. Second, the Harrolds hold a number of their assets in either both of their names or in Mrs. Harrold's name. Although there are a number of permutations as to the above legal theories, one possibility is the Court entering a judgment solely against Mr. Harrold. In that scenario, the Debtors would then be limited to only those assets held in his name. The extent of those assets is limited. Another permutation would be a judgment against both of the Harrolds. However, in that scenario, the Debtors would have to litigate whether certain assets are exempt from collection. Based on the disclosures provided by the Harrolds, a material portion of these assets include the Harrolds' personal residence and proceeds from refunds related to jointly filed tax returns. If the exemptions were to be recognized, the pool of collectible assets would be materially diminished.

27. Finally, if the Liquidating Trustee were to succeed in obtaining a judgment, the Harrolds may file individual bankruptcy petitions. In that case, any chapter 7 trustee would likely incur significant administrative expenses and it could take upwards of two years or longer to receive any distribution from the Harrolds' estate. In the event that a bankruptcy court were to recognize the Harrolds' asserted homestead exemption, then any recovery would be severely impaired.

28. The economic terms of the Settlement avoids these pitfalls. It provides for a turnover of significant monetary assets, including arguably exempt assets and jointly held assets. Ultimately, the Liquidating Trustee believes that the Settlement may well be superior to what could be obtained from executing on monetary judgments, particularly when factoring in professional expenses.

Complexity of litigation and attendant expense, inconvenience and delay

29. This is a significant consideration that militates in favor of approval of the Settlement.

30. In sum, although many of the claims outlined above are typical claims litigated before this Court, they still will require retention of experts and extensive fact discovery before a trial could take place. The result of these efforts will be substantial attorney's fees on both sides which would diminish the net result of any recovery to creditors in the Debtors' cases.

31. Assuming the Debtors were successful in obtaining a judgment against the Harrolds, he would then have to engage in collection efforts and litigate exemptions. The result would again be additional fees and delay.

32. Finally, if the Harrolds file for bankruptcy, the Debtors would only be entitled to a distribution in those cases once administrative expenses are paid and the case is closed a number of years later.

33. The Harrold Settlement addresses these concerns. The parties avoid litigating fact specific claims (including exemption issues such as homestead), with the attendant expense and delay of such litigation being nullified.

Paramount interest of creditors

34. Although a direct result of the Harrold Settlement is that creditors will be barred from asserting any claims against them, the settlement conversely provides significant cash consideration from the Harrolds' remaining assets (including assets which could likely be exempt), avoids the proverbial race to the courthouse and importantly, eliminates the expense, risk and delay associated with litigation.³ Moreover, the impact of such bar order appears negligible since (i) no limited partner or creditor of the Debtors has sued Mrs. Harrold or her children; (ii) Mr. Harrold will be left with few executable assets; and (iii) Mr. Harrold's future earning capacity is significantly impaired. As such, the Settlement is in the paramount interest of the Debtors' stakeholders.

B. The Contingency Fee Ought to be Approved

35. Pursuant to the Plan and this Court's Order Approving the Trustee's Motion to Approve Hybrid Form of Compensation [ECF No., 223], Meland Russin & Budwick, P.A. ("MRB") is entitled to a fee of 10% for any affirmative recovery received by the Debtors' estates and allocated to the Debtors from a litigation matter pursued by the firm without further order of the Court ("Contingency Fee").

³ Considering the commonality of the claims which could be asserted by Debtors or any limited partner of the Debtors against Messrs. Harrold or Prevost, the Liquidating Trustee believes that the bar order being sought in this case is enforceable. See Munford, Inc. v. Munford, Inc., 97 F.3d 449, 454 55 (11th Cir. 1996).

36. In light of the staggered payment that will result in connection with the Settlement, and subject to the Pro Rata Allocation Formula, MRB respectfully requests that the Contingency Fee be paid as follows:

- a) Upon approval of the Settlement and receipt of the cash consideration, 10% of the amount received by each of the Debtors;
- b) Upon the Debtors' receipt of any Harrold tax refund for 2009, 10% of the amount received by each of the Debtors;
- c) Upon the Harrolds' paying the Note securing the mortgage on their homestead property, 10% of the amount received by each of the Debtors; and
- d) In the event Liquidating Trustee elects to take possession, for the benefit of the Debtors, any entity then held by the Harrolds and later sells such entity, 10% of any gross sales price received by each of the Debtors.

WHEREFORE, Liquidating Trustee respectfully requests that this Court enter an Order (similar in form to the order attached as Exhibit 2) (1) approving the Settlement; (2) entering the Bar Order; (3) approving payment of the Contingency Fee and (4) granting such other relief this Court deems just and proper.

("Palm Beach II"; and together with Palm Beach I, the "Debtors"; and (b) David and Michelle Harrold ("Harrolds").¹ The terms of this Stipulation are as follows:

RECITALS

A. On November 30, 2009 ("Petition Date"), the Debtors commenced Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases by filing voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida ("Bankruptcy Court"), Case Nos. 09-36379-PGH and 09-36396-PGH respectively ("Bankruptcy Cases");

B. On January 29, 2010, the Trustee was appointed Chapter 11 trustee for each of the Debtors;

C. On October 21, 2010, the Trustee, pursuant to a confirmed joint plan of liquidation, was appointed Liquidating Trustee for each of the Debtors;

D. The Trustee, on behalf of the Debtors, may assert litigation claims against the Harrolds which could exceed their financial wherewithal to pay ("Potential Litigation");

E. The Harrolds dispute the Trustee's assertions and assert that a substantial portion of their personal assets are exempt under applicable Florida law.

{Firm Clients/4189/4189-9L/00816732.DOC.} 1

F. To avoid the risk and expense of the Potential Litigation, among other reasons, the Harrolds and the Trustee have agreed to resolve the Potential Litigation subject to the terms and conditions of this Stipulation and Bankruptcy Court approval.

G. The Parties acknowledge that this Stipulation is a compromise and settlement of a controversy. No party admits, and each expressly denies, any liability on its part.

H. The Parties agree and stipulate that nothing contained in this Stipulation shall be construed as an admission. Nothing herein shall limit the ability of David Harrold to invoke his rights under the Constitution of the United States of America or the State of Florida.

NOW, WHEREFORE, it is stipulated, consented to and agreed, by and among the Trustee, the Debtors and the Harrolds (each a "Party"; and collectively, the "Parties"), as follows:

1. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

A. Representations as to Assets. The Harrolds warrant and represent (and shall execute an affidavit under oath under penalty of perjury) that (a) the assets set forth in attached Exhibit A (the "Assets List") are all of the assets with a value equal to or in excess of $10,000 in which the Harrolds or their children have any legal or beneficial interest whatsoever, directly or indirectly, either individually or jointly (including any assets held by any third party for their benefit) as of the date of this Stipulation; (b) valid title to the assets set forth in the Assets List is held as represented and (c) no asset with a value in excess of $10,000 is held for their benefit or their children's benefit, except for those assets specifically listed on the Assets List. To the extent that information has been intentionally omitted from the Assets List pursuant to (a), (b) or (c) above and/or misrepresentations have been made by the Harrolds concerning (a), (b) or (c) above, the Harrolds acknowledge and agree that the Trustee shall be entitled to the remedies set forth in Section 3 of this Stipulation. Any omission shall be presumed to be intentional unless established otherwise by the Harrolds by the preponderance of the evidence. The Harrolds acknowledge that the Trustee is relying on the accuracy of these representations and warranties, and that they are material to this Stipulation in that the Trustee would not enter into this Stipulation in the absence of these representations.

B. Representations as to Prior Transfers. The Harrolds warrant and represent (and shall execute an affidavit under oath under penalty of perjury) that from January 1, 2006 through the date of the execution of this Stipulation (the “Transfer Period”), neither they nor their children made any Transfer (as defined below) of personal assets, or of an interest in personal assets, other than those specific transfers disclosed on Exhibit B (the “Transfers List”) and which do not exceed $50,000 in value in the aggregate per Recipient (as defined below). To the extent that any Transfers were made during the Transfer Period and are intentionally omitted from the Transfers List, the Harrolds acknowledge and agree that the Trustee shall be entitled to the remedies set forth in Section 3 of this Stipulation. Any omission shall be presumed to be intentional unless established otherwise by the Harrolds by the preponderance of the evidence. The Harrolds acknowledge that the Trustee is relying on the accuracy of these representations and warranties, and that they are material to this Stipulation in that the Trustee would not enter into this Stipulation in the absence of these representations.

For purposes of this Stipulation, the term “Transfer” shall have the same meaning set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54) and Florida Statute § 726.102(12); provided that the Parties agree that the term Transfer shall not include any individual payments under $5,000 to pay for groceries, utilities, real estate taxes, ordinary and customary car payments, ordinary and customary mortgage payments, ordinary and customary living expenses, gasoline, furniture or clothing even if the sum of such payments exceeds $50,000. The Harrolds warrant and represent that they have each reviewed these definitions with their own separate legal counsel and they each understand this term.

For purposes of this Stipulation, the term “Recipient” shall mean any transferee or an affiliate of such transferee regardless of whether such transferee or affiliate of such transferee is related to or at arms-length with the Harrolds or their children.

C. Time. The Assets List and Transfers List shall be provided within twenty (20) days from the date of execution of this Stipulation.

D. Termination Prior to Bankruptcy Court Approval. Prior to the entry of an Order from the Bankruptcy approving this Stipulation, in the event that the content of the final form of the Assets List or Transfers List deviates materially from those which have been disclosed as of the date of the execution of this Stipulation, the Trustee in his sole discretion may terminate this Stipulation and thereupon it shall be null and void in its entirety.

2. CONSIDERATION.

A. Cash Consideration. Within ten (10) days of entry of an Order approving this Stipulation, the Harrolds shall turn over to the Trustee the assets identified on the Assets List, under the column titled “Trustee.” The Harrolds shall retain all other assets not listed in such column. Further, in light of Michele Harrold’s giving up substantial property interests to facilitate this Stipulation, title to all of the assets being retained by the Harrolds shall vest exclusively in Michele Harrold’s name upon Bankruptcy Court Approval and shall include any and all assets not turned over to the Trustee pursuant to this Stipulation. All consideration paid to the Trustee in conjunction with this settlement shall be deemed a return of profits.

B. Homestead. Immediately upon entry of an Order approving this Stipulation, the Harrolds agree to execute a promissory note in favor of the Trustee with the terms and conditions set forth in Exhibit C ("Note"). The Note shall be secured by a first position mortgage on the Harrolds' homestead property located at 963 Evergreen Drive, Delray Beach, Florida per the terms and conditions set forth in Exhibit D ("Mortgage"). The Harrolds shall provide an ALTA lender's title insurance policy in favor of the Trustee in the face amount of the Note at the expense of the Debtors' estates.

C. Interest in Estate of David Harrold's Mother. The Harrolds shall retain any interest they or their children may have in the estate of David Harrold's deceased mother ("Estate") up to a value of $100,000. To the extent that the Estate conveys an interest to the Harrolds or their children, either directly or indirectly, of a value in excess of $100,000, such interest shall be transferred directly to the Trustee. Within ten (10) days of an Order approving this Stipulation and Bar Order, the Harrolds shall produce to the Trustee copies of all wills and codicils relating to the Estate. The Harrolds warrant and represent that (i) the will(s) or codicil(s) have not been manipulated in such a manner as to favor any beneficiary of the Estate to the detriment of the Harrolds or (ii) no beneficiary of the Estate is receiving an interest directly or indirectly for the benefit of the Harrolds.

D. Entitlement to Tax Refunds. The Harrolds shall immediately turn over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Debtors, seventy-five percent (75%) of any state or federal income tax refund to which either is entitled in connection with tax year 2009. The Harrolds further agree that no portion of any refund attributable to tax payments made in 2008 or earlier may be applied toward any 2009 tax obligation(s). The Harrolds shall timely file their 2009 tax returns and provide the Trustee with copies of any return with any amendments or other related documents. Subject to the Harrolds electing to either file jointly or separately, the 2009 tax returns shall seek the full benefit of any refund to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law. The Harrolds or their tax preparer shall consult with the Trustee or his professionals prior to finalizing of any returns and share any draft return. In the event that the Internal Revenue Service subsequently reduces the federal income tax refund after disbursement to the Trustee, that reduction shall be borne by the Harrolds and the Trustee according to their pro rata shares.

E. Interests in Entities. Within ten (10) days from the date of the entry of an Order approving this Stipulation and Bar Order, the Harrolds shall assign to the Trustee their interests in the closely held entities, business interests or hedge funds identified on the Assets List, under the column titled "Trustee" ("Assigned Interests"). The Assigned Interests shall not include Palm Beach Capital Management, LLC ("PBCMLLC") which is addressed separately in Section 2.F of this Stipulation. The Trustee at his election may decline in writing to accept any such assignment or abandon any Assigned Interest. The Harrolds shall retain all other interests not listed in the column titled "Trustee" ("Retained Interests"). Within ten (10) days from the date of the entry of an Order approving this Stipulation and Bar Order, the Harrolds shall (i) provide the Trustee with all books and records pertaining to the Assigned Interests to enable the Trustee to value the Assigned Interests and (ii) cooperate with the Trustee or his professionals to manage, liquidate or preserve the value of such interests. The Harrolds shall also provide the Trustee with copies of the books and records pertaining to the Retained Interests within five (5) days from the date of execution of this Stipulation to enable the Trustee to confirm the representations made by the Harrolds regarding the Retained Interests. Nothing herein shall be construed as an assumption by the Trustee or the Debtors' estates of any of the debts or liabilities of any of the Management Entities, the Harrolds or the Harrolds' children. The Assigned Interests shall not include Crossroads, LP and Crossroad Finance Series I. LLC, for which full financial disclosure has already been made to the Trustee.

F. PBCMLLC. Within ten (10) days from the date of the entry of an Order approving this Stipulation and Bar Order, David Harrold, in his representative capacity for PBCMLLC, shall cause to be assigned to the Trustee all of PBCMLLC's assets ("PBCMLLC Assets"); provided that such assignment shall not be construed as waiver of any attorney client privilege or attorney work product that may exist with respect to PBCMLLC and Holland Knight LLP ("H&K Materials"); and further provided that PBCMLLC retains its right to invoke, maintain or waive such privilege and work product, and to retain attorneys (to be paid for by the Harrolds) as needed. Within ten (10) days from the date of the entry of an Order approving this Stipulation and Bar Order, the Harrolds shall (i) provide the Trustee with all books and records pertaining to the PBCMLLC Assets (other than H&K Materials) to enable the Trustee to value them and (ii) cooperate with the Trustee or his professionals to manage, liquidate or preserve the value of such assets. The Trustee at his election may decline in writing to accept any of the PBCMLLC Assets. Nothing herein shall be construed as an assumption by the Trustee or the Debtors' estates of any of the debts or liabilities of PBCMLLC, the Harrolds or the Harrolds' children.

G. Management Entities. David Harrold, in his representative capacity for Palm Beach Capital Management, L.P., Palm Beach Capital Corp. and PBCMLLC ("Management Entities"), shall cause:

i. Within ten (10) days from the date of the entry of an Order approving this Stipulation and Bar order, the turn over to the Trustee or his counsel of all electronic records of the Management Entities (other than H&K Materials) for inspection or copying. To the extent any H&K Materials are produced, such production shall be considered inadvertent and the Trustee or his professionals shall return such materials to the Management Entities. Such electronic records shall include both information pertaining to the Debtors, in addition to information pertaining to any other entities managed or controlled by the Management Entities. The Trustee acknowledges and agrees that it will not use such information for his personal benefit and will only use the information insofar as it relates to generating recoveries for the Debtors' estates. Such information shall not be disclosed to any third party (other than the Trustee's professionals or employees) absent Court order or the third party signing a confidentiality agreement in form reasonably acceptable to the Harrolds.

ii. Within thirty (30) days from the date of the entry of an Order approving this Stipulation and Bar Order, the turn over to the Trustee of all hard copy records of the Management Entities (other than H&K Materials) for inspection and copying. To the extent any H&K Materials are produced, such production shall be considered inadvertent and the Trustee or his professionals shall return such materials to the Management Entities. Such records shall include both information pertaining to the Debtors, in addition to information pertaining to any other entities managed of controlled by the Management Entities. The Trustee acknowledges and agrees that it will not use such information for his personal benefit and will only use the information insofar as it relates to generating recoveries for the Debtors' estates. Further, such information shall not be disclosed to any third party (other than the Trustee's professionals or employees) absent Court order or the third party signing a confidentiality agreement in form reasonably acceptable to the Harrolds.

H. Consent to Judgment on Behalf of Management Entities. In the event that the Trustee files a civil action against any of the Management Entities, David Harrold, in his representative capacity for the Management Entities, consents to the entry of a monetary judgment in favor of each Debtor in the amount of all Transfers made by each Debtor to each of the Management Entities within the four (4) year period preceding the Debtors' Petition Date. The Trustee agrees that he shall not, on behalf of the Debtors, seek to impose any subsequent transferee liability or file and pursue any avoidance actions against Rappaport Osborne & Rappaport, P.L., Holland & Knight, LLP or Furr & Cohen, P.A. (or any attorney employed therein) for any fees they have been paid or costs reimbursed.

I. Consent to Judgment on Behalf of Affiliated Entities. In the event that the Trustee files a civil action to avoid or recover transfers to or for the benefit of Palm Beach Diversified, Inc., Palm Beach Multi-Strategy Fund LP, Palm Beach Multi-Strategy LP, or any other hedge fund, business entity or investment vehicle affiliated with either of the Harrolds, the Harrolds agree not to take any action to oppose the relief sought by the Trustee.

J. PBFP Holdings, LLC. The Harrolds agree, and at the sole election of the Trustee, to either (a) turn over any interest they hold in PBFP Holdings, LLC ("Holdings") to the Trustee for the benefit of the Debtors or (ii) if the Trustee seeks to substantively consolidate Holdings with the Debtors, not to contest such consolidation.

K. Bar Order. As a condition for the Harrolds in entering into this Stipulation, the Trustee, with the cooperation of the Harrolds, shall obtain the entry of an order ("Bar Order") by the Bankruptcy Court in the form of Exhibit E which bars and permanently enjoins the prosecution of any and all direct, indirect or derivative claims against the Harrolds or their children whether known or unknown, by any and all of the following entities: (1) any creditors of either of the Debtors (including but not limited to Palm Beach Offshore Ltd. and Palm Beach Offshore II, Ltd.); (2) any limited partners of either of the Debtors or (3) any persons listed on Exhibit F (collectively, the "Enjoined Parties").

3. REMEDIES.

A. Omission from or Misrepresentations Regarding the Assets List or Transfers List. Prior to the Trustee's closing of the Bankruptcy Cases, in the event the Trustee discovers (i) any undisclosed asset with a value equal to or in excess of $10,000 in which the Harrolds or their children hold a legal or beneficial interest as of the date of the execution of this Stipulation that is not specifically identified on the Assets List, or (ii) that the Harrolds or their children have transferred any assets to a Recipient with an aggregate value in excess of $50,000 within the Transfer Period that is not specifically disclosed on the Transfers List, then the Trustee (or any interested party only as to (ii) below), in addition to electing any other remedies and rights available under this Stipulation, at law or in equity, shall be entitled to the following remedies:

- i. To retain the consideration provided for in Section 2 of this Stipulation;
- ii. Vacatur of the Bar Order; and

iii. To file an adversary complaint in the Bankruptcy Court seeking a judicial determination that the Harrolds intentionally failed to disclose such asset(s) or transfer(s) and upon a judicial determination in his favor, be entitled to the entry of a judgment by the Bankruptcy Court in favor of the Trustee and against the Harrolds, jointly and severally, in the amount of $2,500,000.00 (the “Judgment”). Any omission shall be presumed to be intentional unless established otherwise by the Harrolds by a preponderance of the evidence. The Judgment shall provide for post-judgment interest at the then prevailing rate. The amount of the Judgment as stated herein has been determined by the Parties to be an appropriate measure of liquidated damages, is not a penalty and the Parties acknowledge the difficulty in ascertaining and quantifying all such damages that would flow from such a breach by the Harrolds, including but not limited to the costs of identifying the omitted asset or transfer, the costs of seeking to collect the Judgment and the costs of making an appropriate supplemental disbursement(s) to the entire creditor and/or interest holder bodies of the Debtors from the proceeds of the liquidated omitted asset(s) or transfer(s). Upon entry of the Judgment, the Trustee shall have the right to record the Judgment in any jurisdiction located either within or without the United States of America and shall also shall have the right to levy or execute upon any asset owned by the Harrolds.

4. COVENANT NOT TO SUE AND RELEASES.

A. Covenant Not to Sue. Upon approval of this Stipulation by final order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Bankruptcy Cases, the Trustee, on behalf of the Debtors, shall provide to the Harrolds and their children a covenant not to sue in a form reasonably and mutually acceptable to the Parties; provided that neither the Trustee nor the Debtors shall be required to release, nor shall any aspect of this Stipulation or covenant not to sue be deemed or interpreted as a covenant not to sue or a release of any Claims of any type against any persons or entities including any initial or subsequent transferees of the Harrolds, or any joint, consecutive or concurrent tortfeasors (except Rappaport Osborne & Rappaport, P.L., Holland & Knight, LLP or Furr & Cohen, P.A. or any attorney employed therein) as set forth in Paragraph 2.K (which attorneys shall be released for any fees they have been paid or costs reimbursed) and further provided that in the event that Trustee elects to take ownership of David Harrold's interest in the Management Entities, such covenant not to sue shall also then include and be binding upon the Management Entities. Notwithstanding anything else contained within this Stipulation, the covenant not to sue shall be null and void in its entirety in the event that the Harrolds fail to comply with their obligations as set forth in this Stipulation.

B. Release by the Harrolds. Upon approval of this Stipulation by final order of the Bankruptcy Court in the Bankruptcy Cases, the Harrolds and their children waive, release and hold harmless, now and forever, the Trustee, his counsel and the Debtors from any and all Claims (as defined below) that the Harrolds or their children may have against the Trustee, his counsel or the Debtors including the extinguishment of any equity interest they may have individually or through any corporate entities, directly or indirectly, in either of the Debtors; provided that this provision does not release, waive or otherwise limit any rights or obligations arising out of this Stipulation.

For purposes of this Stipulation, the term "Claims" shall have the meaning set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 101(5).

5. COOPERATION.

Upon the execution of this Stipulation, David Harrold agrees to and shall make himself available for interviews at mutually agreeable times at the Trustee's counsel's Miami office for at least twenty (20) hours per month through February 28, 2011 and for at least ten (10) hours per month thereafter until the Bankruptcy Cases are closed. David Harrold shall not be entitled to any compensation or reimbursement of expenses for attendance at such meetings, other than parking expense. This provision is not intended to be a waiver of any applicable privileges inuring to the benefit of the Harrolds, either individually or jointly. If David Harrold cannot be available in person for reasons reasonably beyond his control (supported by a sworn affidavit if requested by the Trustee), the Parties agree that this will not be deemed a material breach and that he will make up any missed time as soon as he becomes available.

6. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

A. Review. Each of the Parties acknowledges that he, she or it has read all of the terms of this Stipulation, has had an opportunity to consult with counsel of his, her or its own choosing or voluntarily waived such right and enters into those terms voluntarily and without duress.

B. Approval. The Trustee shall file and serve the necessary motion(s) in the Bankruptcy Cases seeking the entry of the Bar Order and an order approving this Stipulation pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019. Each Party shall bear its own attorneys' fees and costs in connection with the Potential Litigation, the negotiation and drafting of this Stipulation and the submission of such Stipulation and any motions, orders and hearings as may be necessary to obtain the approval of the Bankruptcy Court; provided that in the event of any litigation between the Parties in connection with this Stipulation or arising as a result of a default under this Stipulation, the prevailing Party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs related thereto, including, but not limited to, those incurred at all trial and appellate levels.

C. Modification. This Stipulation and any of the specific items, covenants, and conditions contained herein, may not be waived, changed, altered or modified except by an instrument in writing signed by all the Parties against whom enforcement of such change is sought.

D. Effective Date. This Stipulation shall be effective upon execution by all of the Parties hereto, subject only to approval of this Stipulation by final orders of the Bankruptcy Court.

E. No Approval. If the Bankruptcy Court does not approve this Stipulation, then the Stipulation shall be of no further force or effect, and the Parties shall be restored to their rights as they existed prior to the execution of this Stipulation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Bankruptcy Court does not approve this Stipulation because any of the Parties have failed to provide the Bankruptcy Court with adequate information to rule on the merits of the Stipulation, the Parties will use their best efforts to seek reconsideration of any order denying approval of the Stipulation, or file an amended motion to approve the Stipulation.

F. Controlling Law. This Stipulation shall in all respects be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida applicable to contracts made and to be performed wholly within the State of Florida and by federal law to the extent the same has preempted the laws of the State of Florida.

G. Counterparts. This Stipulation may be executed in any number of counterparts and by different Parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same Stipulation. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Stipulation by facsimile shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Stipulation.

H. Construction. This Stipulation shall be deemed to have been jointly drafted by the Parties, and in construing and interpreting this Stipulation, no provision shall be construed and interpreted for or against any of the Parties because such provision or any other provision of the Stipulation as a whole is purportedly prepared or requested by such Party.

I. Jurisdiction. The Bankruptcy Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this Stipulation.

J. Authority to Bind. The individuals signing below represent and warrant that they have the authority to execute this Stipulation.

EXHIBIT B

TO BE FILED SEPARATELY

PROMISSORY NOTE

$1,875,000.00

Delray Beach, Florida
_____, 2010

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, David Harrold and Michelle Harrold, husband and wife, (collectively the "Maker") hereby agree to pay to the order of Barry Mukamal, as Chapter 11 Trustee of Palm Beach Finance Partners, L.P. and Palm Beach Finance II, L.P., with and address c/o Meland Russin & Budwick, PA, 200 South Biscayne Boulevard, Suite 3000, Miami, Florida 33131 (the "Payee") the principal sum of ONE MILLION EIGHT HUNDRED SEVENTY FIVE THOUSAND AND NO/100 ($1,875,000.00) DOLLARS, together with interest, at the rate and on the terms set forth herein, as follows: Monthly payments shall not be required during the term hereof. All principal, interest and unpaid costs shall be due and payable 24 months after execution of this Promissory Note (the "Maturity Date"), unless sooner accelerated pursuant to the terms hereof. In the event the unpaid principal balance of the indebtedness with interest thereon is not paid on the Maturity Date, Maker will pay interest at the default rate hereinafter provided in this Note. THIS IS A BALLOON NOTE AND THE FINAL PRINCIPAL PAYMENT OR THE FINAL PRINCIPAL BALANCE DUE UPON MATURITY IS $1,875,000.00, TOGETHER WITH ACCRUED INTEREST AND ALL ADVANCEMENTS MADE BY THE PAYEE UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS NOTE.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Maker shall have the right, which may be exercised only by written notice given to Payee no sooner than 90 days and no less than 30 days prior to the initial Maturity Date, to renew the unpaid principal balance of this Note for one additional twelve (12) month term (the "Extension Term"); provided that: (i) there is no default and no event has occurred that could become a default under the terms of this Note, or any of the Loan Documents at the time of such notice and on the date of extension; (ii) Maker shall execute an estoppel statement confirming no offsets, defenses or counterclaims to any of the obligations hereunder, and all other documents reasonably required by Payee to evidence the extension and to confirm Maker's continuing obligations; (iii) the Property (hereinafter defined) appraises (by a mutually agreed MAI appraiser) such that the loan-to-value ("LTV") ratio of the Property is seventy (70) percent (inclusive of outstanding real estate taxes and accrued interest); and (iv) Maker shall pay all costs and expenses in connection with such extension, including without limitation, appraisal fee, any documentary and intangible taxes, if any, and any recording fees. In the event that condition (iii) above is not satisfied due to a LTV ratio above seventy (70) percent, Maker shall have thirty calendar days to provide cash consideration to the Trustee to cause the LTV ratio to become compliant. If such extension option is duly exercised under this Note, then during the Extension Term all terms and conditions set forth in this Note and all of the Loan Documents shall remain in full force and effect except there shall be no further right to extend the Maturity Date beyond the Extension Term.

Prior to the Maturity Date, interest shall accrue on the whole of the principal balance remaining outstanding from time to time at a fixed rate of 5.00% per annum. If the Extension Term is duly exercised, the rate of interest during the Extension Term on the whole of the principal balance shall be fixed at 12.00% per annum.

Interest shall be calculated on a three hundred sixty (360) day year for the actual number of days the debt is outstanding in each calendar year, by multiplying the actual number of days the debt is outstanding in each calendar year by the rate of interest computed as provided in this Note, and dividing the product thereof by three hundred sixty (360).

Maker shall have the right to prepay this Note, in whole or in part, at any time without penalty, provided that any partial prepayment shall be applied first to accrued interest and then to principal. The principal and interest shall be payable at the office of Payee set forth in the heading hereof, or at such other place as Payee, from time to time, may designate in writing.

Payment of this Note is secured by a FIRST Mortgage of even date herewith, intended to be recorded forthwith, from Maker to Payee, secured upon certain premises located in Palm Beach County, State of Florida, located at 963 Evergreen Drive, Delray Beach, more particularly described in the Mortgage (and herein referred to as the "Property"). The Mortgage, together with all the other documents executed by Maker relating to this transaction, hereinafter referred to as the "Loan Documents". As used in this instrument, the term "Obligations" shall refer to the indebtedness represented by this note and all modifications, renewals and substitutions hereof, all obligations of the Maker under Loan Documents which evidence and secure the obligations of the loan evidenced by this note (the "Loan"), and all other claims of every nature and description of the Payee against the Maker whether present or future, contracted with or acquired by the Payee, and whether joint, several, absolute, contingent, matured, unmatured, liquidated, unliquidated, or direct or indirect.

All of the agreements, conditions, covenants, provisions and stipulations contained in the Mortgage and the other Loan Documents which are to be kept and performed by Maker are hereby made a part of this Note to the same extent and with the same force and effect as if they were fully set forth herein, and Maker covenants and agrees to keep and perform them, or cause them to be kept and performed, strictly in accordance with their terms. Any default by Maker under any of the Loan Documents which remains uncured upon the expiration of any applicable grace and/or curative period provided for therein, may, at Payee's option, be treated as an event of default hereunder.

All payments shall be applied first to accrued interest and then to principal. If any installment of interest or principal and interest or any other payment is not paid within five (5) days of the date when due under the terms of this Note, or of the Mortgage, then there shall also be immediately due and payable a late payment charge of a sum equal to five (5%) percent of the amount of such late payment for each month of delinquency. Any late payment fee that will be charged shall be calculated on the total monthly payment which includes principal, interest and escrows.

It is further understood, however, that should any default be made in the payment of any installment of principal or interest on the date on which it shall fall due, or in the performance of any of the agreements, conditions, covenants, provisions or stipulations contained in this Note, the Mortgage or any of the other Loan Documents, then Payee, at its option and without notice to Maker unless expressly required elsewhere herein, may declare immediately due and payable the entire unpaid balance of principal with interest accrued thereon at the then otherwise applicable rate specified herein above to the date of default and thereafter at a rate equal to twelve (12%) percent (which rate is hereinafter referred to as the "Default Rate") and all other sums due by Maker hereunder or under the Loan Documents, anything herein or in the Loan Documents to the contrary notwithstanding; and payment thereof may be enforced and recovered in whole or in part at any time by one or more of the remedies provided to Payee in this Note or the Loan Documents. In such case, Payee may also recover all costs of suit and other expenses in connection therewith, together with a reasonable attorneys' fee for collection, together with interest on any judgment obtained by Payee at a rate which shall be equal to the Default Rate, including interest at that rate from and after the date of any execution, judicial or foreclosure sale until actual payment is made to Payee of the full amount due Payee. Additionally, from and after maturity of this Note (whether upon scheduled maturity, by acceleration or otherwise), all sums then due and payable under this Note, including all unpaid principal, accrued interest and any other sums outstanding hereunder, shall bear interest until paid in full at the Default Rate.

The failure of the Payee to exercise such option to accelerate the indebtedness evidenced hereby shall not constitute a waiver of the right to exercise such option at any other time so long as such event of default remains outstanding and uncured.

Payee shall not exercise any right or remedy provided for herein (other than Payee's right to be paid a late charge, as described above), unless Payee in its sole discretion, deems itself insecure, or (the following sometimes referred to as "Events of Default"): (1) Maker fails to make any payment of principal or interest within five (5) days from when due pursuant to the Note; or (2) in the event of any other monetary default, Maker shall have failed, within a period of ten (10) days after such default, to pay the amounts then due; or (3) in the event of a non-monetary default, Maker shall have failed, within a period of thirty (30) days after receipt by Maker of written notice of such default, to correct the non-monetary default or, if such non-monetary default is of a type which cannot be cured within thirty (30) days, Maker shall have begun to correct such default and thereafter Maker proceeds diligently to correct such default; provided, however, that Payee shall not be required to allow any part of the grace period if Maker shall have filed a petition in bankruptcy or for reorganization or a bill in equity or otherwise initiated proceedings for the appointment of a receiver of Maker's assets, or if Maker shall have made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or if a receiver or trustee is appointed for Maker and such appointment and such receivership is not terminated within sixty (60) days. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary: (a) Payee shall not be required to allow any grace period or give notice of any default as aforesaid more than two (2) times in any twelve (12) month period with respect to substantially similar events of default; and (b) Payee shall be permitted to cure any default by Maker without allowing any part of the grace period if Payee determines, in its reasonable judgment, that its security may be threatened or impaired by reason of such default. In the event that any of the Loan Documents contains a grace period, such grace period shall run concurrently with the grace period granted herein and, if the grace period granted in such other document is shorter than that set forth herein, the grace period set forth herein shall control.

The remedies of Payee as provided herein and the warranties contained herein or attached hereto, shall be cumulative and concurrent, and may be pursued singly, successively or together at the sole discretion of Payee, and may be exercised as often as occasion therefor shall occur; and the failure to exercise any such right or remedy shall in no event be construed as a waiver or release thereof.

Maker hereby waives and releases all benefit that might accrue to Maker by virtue of any laws exempting any property, real or personal, or any part of the proceeds arising from any sale of any such property, from attachment, levy or sale under execution, or providing for any stay of execution to be issued on any judgment recovered on this Note, exemption from civil process, or extension of time for payment. Maker and all endorsers, sureties and guarantors hereby jointly and severally waive presentment for payment, demand, notice of demand, notice of nonpayment or dishonor, protest and notice of protest of this Note, and, except as expressly required by the terms and provisions of the Note and other Loan Documents, all other notices in connection with the delivery, acceptance, performance, default, or enforcement of the payment of this Note, and they agree that the liability of each of them shall be unconditional, joint and several, without regard to the liability of any other party, and shall not be affected in any manner by any indulgence, extension of time, renewal, waiver or modification granted or consented to by Payee. Maker and all endorsers, sureties and guarantors consent to any and all extensions of time, renewals, waivers or modifications that may be granted by Payee with respect to the payment or other provisions of this Note, and to the release of the collateral or any part thereof, with or without substitution, and agree that additional makers, endorsers, guarantors or sureties may become parties hereto without notice to them or affecting their liability hereunder.

If any provision of this Note is held to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the other provisions of this Note shall remain in full force and effect... In no event shall the rate of interest payable hereunder exceed the maximum rate of interest permitted to be charged by applicable law (including the choice of law rules) (hereinafter the "Maximum Legal Rate") and any interest paid in excess of the permitted rate shall be refunded to Maker or at the option of Maker used to reduce the principal of the outstanding indebtedness. Such refund shall be made by application of the excessive amount of interest paid against any sums outstanding and shall be applied in such order as Payee may determine. If the excessive amount of interest paid exceeds the sums outstanding, the portion exceeding the said sums outstanding shall be refunded in cash by Payee. Any such crediting or refund shall not cure or waive any default by Maker hereunder. Maker agrees, however, that in determining whether or not any interest payable under this Note exceeds the highest rate permitted by law, any nonprincipal payment, including, without limitation, prepayment fees and late charges, shall be deemed to the extent permitted by law, to be an expense, fee, premium or penalty rather than as interest.

In determining whether or not the interest paid or payable under any specific contingency exceeds the Maximum Legal Rate, Payee shall, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law: (a) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof; and (b) amortize, prorate, allocate and spread, in equal parts, the total amount of interest throughout the entire contemplated term of this Note so that the interest rate is uniform throughout the entire term of this Note; provided, that if this Note is paid and performed in full prior to the end of the full contemplated term hereof, and if the interest received for the actual period of existence thereof exceeds the Maximum Legal Rate, Payee shall refund to Maker the amount of such excess, and in such event, no holder shall be subject to any penalties provided by any laws for contracting for, charging or receiving interest in excess of the Maximum Legal Rate.

Payee shall not be deemed, by any act of omission or commission, to have waived any of its rights or remedies hereunder unless such waiver is in writing and signed by Payee, and then only to the extent specifically set forth in the writing. A waiver on one event shall not be construed as continuing or as a bar to or waiver of any right or remedy to a subsequent event.

This is a non recourse Note. Payee can only look to the real property for payment on the loan. Under no circumstances will the Maker be liable on any possible deficiency if the value of the real property is less than the amount due under the Note.

This Note is governed by the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to the choice of law rules of that State. Maker consents to the non-exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida over any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Note, the Mortgage, Loan Documents, and all claims in respect thereto, including any action to interpret and enforce the rights and obligations of the parties hereto.

Whenever used, the singular number shall include the plural, the plural the singular, the use of any gender shall be applicable to all genders, and the words "Payee" and "Maker" shall be deemed to include the respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns of Payee and Maker.

Time is of the essence in the performance of all obligations of the Maker under this Note.

This Note may not be amended or modified, nor shall any waiver of any provision hereof be effective, except by an instrument in writing executed by Maker and Payee.

This Note inures to and binds the heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns of Maker and Payee; provided, however, that Maker may not assign this Note, or assign or delegate any of its rights or obligations, without the prior written consent of Payee in each instance. Payee in its sole and absolute discretion may, at any time, sell, transfer, or assign this Note. Nothing in this paragraph shall be interpreted to prohibit Mortgagor and/or David Harrold from selling, conveying or transferring any interest in or any part of the real property to Michelle Harrold.

MAKER HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION PROCEEDINGS OR COUNTERCLAIMS ARISING OUT OF, UNDER, OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS NOTE, OR ANY OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS. FURTHER, MAKER HEREBY CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE OR AGENT OF THE PAYEE NOR THE MAKER'S COUNSEL HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT THE PAYEE WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF SUCH LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO JURY TRIAL PROVISION. THE MAKER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE PAYEE HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS TRANSACTION BY, INTER ALIA, THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION. MAKER AGREES NOT TO SEEK TO CONSOLIDATE ANY SUCH ACTION IN WHICH A JURY TRIAL HAS BEEN WAIVED WITH ANY OTHER ACTION IN WHICH A JURY TRIAL CANNOT BE WAIVED.

Maker, intending to be legally bound hereby, has caused this Note to be executed as of the day and year first above written. This Note consists of six (6) pages.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Maker has executed this Promissory Note as of the day and year first above written.

To have and hold the same together with the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances, unto the Mortgagee and their heirs and assigns, fee simple.

This is a FIRST MORTGAGE.

AND the Mortgagor, for themselves, their heirs, legal representatives, successors or assigns, do covenant with the Mortgagee, their heirs, legal representatives, successors or assigns that the Mortgagors have full power and lawful right to convey the Property in fee simple as aforesaid; that it shall be lawful of the Mortgagee, their heirs, legal representatives, successors or assigns, at all time peaceably and quietly to enter upon the Property; that the Property is free from all encumbrances and that the Mortgagor, their heirs, legal representatives, successors or assigns will make such further assurances to perfect the fee simple to the Property in the Mortgagee, their heirs, legal representatives, successors or assigns as may reasonably be required, and that the Mortgagor hereby fully warrants the title to the Property and will defend the Property against the lawful claims of all persons whomsoever.

And the Mortgagor, for themselves and their heirs, legal representatives and assigns, hereby covenant and agree:

1. To pay all and singular the principal and interest and other sums of money payable by virtue of the Note and this Mortgage, or either, promptly on the days respectively the same severally become due.

2. Subject to paragraph 19 below, to pay all real estate taxes and assessments and charges of every kind upon the Property before the same become delinquent.

3. To pay all and singular the costs, charges and expenses, including lawyer's fees, reasonably incurred or paid at any time by said Mortgagee, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns, because of the failure on the part of the said Mortgagor, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns to perform, comply with and abide by each and every of the stipulations, agreements, conditions and covenants of the Note and this Mortgage, or either, and such payment shall bear interest from date at the maximum rate of interest set forth in the Note.

4. To keep the improvements now existing or hereafter erected on the Property insured against loss by fire, hazards included within the term "extended coverage" and any other hazards, including windstorms, floods or flooding, for which Mortgagee requires insurance. Additionally, Mortgagor shall keep and maintain contents and liability insurance for casualty or damage occurring within the Property in an amount not less than the full insurable value of the improvements, but in no event for less than original principal amount of the Note, in a company or companies to be reasonably approved by said Mortgagee, and the policy or policies held by and payable to said Mortgagee, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns. In the event any sum of money becomes payable under such policy or policies, the Mortgagee, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns and the Mortgagor agree (1) to receive and use the policy proceeds to repair any and damages to the property provided that mortgagee, in the event he believes that he is not adequately protected with respect to the Property, may seek an order from the Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida ordering that such policy proceeds be applied to the indebtedness and provided further that the use of such policy proceeds does not constitute a waiver or impairment of any equity, lien or right under or by virtue of this Mortgage and (2) that Mortgagee may place and pay for such insurance or any part thereof without waiving or affecting the option to foreclose or any right hereunder, and each and every such payment shall bear interest from date at the maximum rate of interest set forth in the Note. . If Mortgagor fails to maintain coverages described above, Mortgagee may, at Mortgagee's option, obtain coverage to protect Mortgagee's rights in the Property and any amounts disbursed by Mortgagee as a result of same shall become additional debt of Mortgagor secured by this Mortgage and shall bear interest from the date of disbursement at the maximum rate of interest set forth in the Note.

5. To permit, commit or suffer no waste, impairment or deterioration of the Property, or any part thereof, and to keep the same and improvements thereon in good condition and repair. To make no additions, alterations or improvements except by a licensed contractor pursuant to all required building permits issued by the appropriate governmental authorities. If this Mortgage is on a unit in a condominium or a planned unit development, Mortgagor shall perform all of Mortgagor's obligations under the declaration or covenants creating or governing the condominium or planned unit development, the by-laws and regulations of the condominium or planned unit development, and constituent documents.

6. To perform, comply with, and abide by each and every of the stipulations, agreements, conditions and covenants in the Note, and in this Mortgage set forth.

7. It is understood and agreed by Mortgagor that as part of the inducement to Mortgagee to make the loan evidenced by the Note, Mortgagee has considered and relied on the reliability of Mortgagor. Mortgagor covenants and agrees not to sell, convey, transfer or encumber (including but not limited to, wraparound Mortgages) any interest in or any part of the real property described herein without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee, and any such sale, conveyance, transfer or encumbrance made without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee shall result in the automatic acceleration of all indebtedness due and owing under the Note, and same shall be then deemed immediately due and payable together with any prepayment penalty. If any person shall obtain an interest in all or any part of the Property described herein pursuant to the execution or enforcement of any lien, security interest or other right, whether superior, equal or subordinate to this Mortgage or the lien hereof, such event (absent the express approval of Mortgagee) shall be deemed to be a transfer by Mortgagor and shall result in the automatic acceleration of all indebtedness due and owing under the Note, and same shall be then deemed immediately due and payable. Nothing in this paragraph shall be interpreted to prohibit Mortgagor and/or David Harrold from selling, conveying or transferring any interest in or any part of the real property to Michelle Harrold.

8. Mortgagee may make or cause to be made reasonable entries upon and inspections of the Property, provided that Mortgagee shall give Mortgagor notice prior to any such inspection specifying reasonable cause therefor related to Mortgagee's interest in the Property.

9. If any of said sums of money herein referred to be not promptly and fully paid when due and payable, or if each and every of the stipulations, agreements, conditions and covenants of the Note and this Mortgage, or either, are not fully performed, complied with and abided by, then all obligations under the Note and under this Mortgage, including, but not limited to sums advance by the Mortgagee to protect their security or lien position on the Property or any of their rights under this Mortgage, shall immediately and without further notice to Mortgagor become due and payable and bear interest at the maximum rate of interest set forth in the Note.

10. Mortgagor agrees that it shall not make any major changes to the Property until this Mortgage is satisfied.

11. If Mortgagor fails to perform the covenants and agreements contained in this Mortgage, or there is a legal proceeding that may significantly affect Mortgagee's rights in the Property (such as a proceeding in bankruptcy, probate, or condemnation or forfeiture or to enforce laws or regulations), then Mortgagee may do and pay for whatever is necessary for to protect the value of the Property. Mortgagee's actions may include paying any sums secured by a lien which has priority over this Mortgage, appearing in court, paying reasonable attorneys fees and entering on the Property to make repairs. Although Mortgagee may take action under this Paragraph, Mortgagee does not have to do so. Any amounts disbursed by Mortgagee under this Paragraph shall become additional debt of Mortgagor secured by this Mortgage. Unless Mortgagor and Mortgagee agree to other terms of payment, these amounts shall bear interest from the date of disbursement at the maximum rate of interest set forth in the Note and shall be payable, with interest, upon notice from Mortgagee to Mortgagor requesting payment.

12. In the event that Mortgagor becomes the subject of any proceeding under any Chapter of the Bankruptcy Code, Title 11 U.S.C.A. (Bankruptcy Code), Mortgagee shall be and is entitled to relief from, and the absolute and immediate lifting of any automatic stay as to the enforcement of Mortgagee's remedies under the Note and/or the Mortgage, against the Property encumbered by the Mortgage, including but not limited to relief from the stay imposed by Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, as amended, in any bankruptcy proceedings. In the event of any voluntary or involuntary petition in bankruptcy by or against Mortgagor, Mortgagor shall not assert or request any other party to assert the automatic stay provided by Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code and nothing shall operate or be interpreted to stay, interdict, condition, reduce or inhibit the ability of Mortgagee to enforce any rights it has by virtue of the Mortgage against the Property encumbered by the Mortgage.

13. Mortgagee can only look to the real property for payment of the sums due under the Promissory Note and Mortgage.

14. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Mortgagor and the Mortgagee agree that the Mortgagee does not at any time intend to charge nor does the Mortgagor have any obligation to pay interest at a rate which shall exceed the limits specified under the laws under the State of Florida applicable to this Mortgage and Note evidencing the indebtedness. If any interpretation of the provisions of this Mortgage would require the Mortgagor to pay interest or other fees or sums which have paid in the opinion of the Mortgagee or their counsel, would constitute a violation of the above mentioned intention of the parties, then that Mortgagee shall advise the Mortgagor in writing as to what reduced amount of interest or other charges or fees shall be paid and thereupon this Mortgage shall be deemed to be interpreted and intended to read as set forth in said writing as a true intention of the parties. Any interest previously paid which would be construed under Florida law as usurious interest shall be deemed to have been a payment against principal as of the time of payment.

15. That no waiver of any agreement, covenant, condition, representation, or warranty under this Mortgage or the Note shall at any time hereafter be held to be a waiver of any of the other terms thereof or a continuing waiver thereof. Time is of the essence under all terms and conditions of the Mortgage and Note.

16. Each provision of this Mortgage is intended to be severable and the invalidity or illegality of any portion of this Mortgage shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder thereof. Any ambiguities contained in this Mortgage shall not be construed against the preparers of this document.

17. This Mortgage secures such future or additional advances (in addition to the principal amount of the Note) as may be made by Mortgagee or the holder hereof at its exclusive option, to Mortgagor or their successors or assigns in title, for any purpose, provided that all such advances are made within 15 years from the date of this Mortgage or within such lesser period of time as may be provided by law as a prerequisite for the sufficiency of actual notice or record notice of such optional, future or additional advances as against the rights of creditors or subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration to the same extent as if such future or additional advances are made on the date of the execution of this Mortgage. The total amount of indebtedness secured by this Mortgage may be increased or decreased from time to time, but the total unpaid balance so secured at any one time shall not exceed an amount equal to two (2) times the original principal sum of the Note secured hereby, plus interest thereon and any disbursements made under this Mortgage for the payment of taxes, insurance or otherwise, with interest on such disbursements. It is agreed that any additional sum or sums advanced by Mortgagee shall be equally secured with, and have the same priority as, the original principal indebtedness payable under the Note and shall be subject to all of the terms, provisions, and conditions of this Mortgage, whether or not such additional loans or advances are evidenced by other promissory Note of Mortgagor and whether or not identified by a recital that it or they are secured by this Mortgage and provided further that it is understood and agreed that this future advance provision shall not be construed to obligate the Mortgagee to make any such additional loans or advances. This Mortgage cannot be waived, changed, discharged or terminated orally, but only by an instrument in writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of any waiver, change, discharge or termination is sought.

18. This Mortgage constitutes a Security Agreement as that term is used in the Uniform Commercial Code. Mortgagor, as debtor, hereby grants to Mortgagee, as secured party, a security interest in, and lien on, the following property (collectively, the "Secured Property"): (a) All insurance policies required to be maintained by Mortgagor hereunder, together with all general intangibles, contract rights and accounts arising therefrom; (b) All leases and rents and all proceeds of any judgment, award or settlement in any condemnation or eminent domain proceeding, together with all general intangibles, contract rights and accounts arising therefrom; (c) All of the Equipment which constitutes personal property and all other personal property described in the granting clauses hereof; and (d) All of Mortgagor's right, title and interest in and to all licenses, permits, certificates, and authorizations, currently in effect with respect to the Property; (e) Any and all renewals or replacements of or additions and substitutions to any of the above-mentioned items; and (f) All proceeds of the above-mentioned items.

19. Mortgagor currently owes 2010 real estate county taxes on the Property. The Mortgagor's failure to pay such taxes or future taxes that may accrue prior to the maturity of the Note shall not constitute an event of default. If Mortgagor fails to pay such tax, assessment or charge and redeem a tax certificate issued against the Property, Mortgagee may, at its election (but shall not be required to), pay and discharge any such tax, assessment or charge, and any interest or penalty thereon, and any amounts so expended by Mortgagee shall be deemed to constitute disbursements of the Loan proceeds hereunder (even if the total amount of disbursements would exceed the face amount of the Note). Mortgagor shall, unless Mortgagee has paid such taxes directly on Mortgagor's behalf, furnish to Mortgagee evidence that taxes are paid within five calendar days of making payment of such taxes.

20. MORTGAGOR HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES THE RIGHT THEY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS MORTGAGE, OR THE NOTE OR ANY AGREEMENT CONTEMPLATED TO BE EXECUTED IN CONJUNCTION HERewith, OR ANY COURSE OF CONDUCT, COURSE OF DEALING, STATEMENTS (WHETHER VERBAL OR WRITTEN) OR ACTIONS OF ANY PARTY RELATING HERETO OR THERETO. THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR MORTGAGEE ACCEPTING THIS MORTGAGE.

THIS IS A BALLOON MORTGAGE AND THE FINAL PRINCIPAL PAYMENT OR THE PRINCIPAL BALANCE DUE UPON MATURITY IS $1,875,000.00, TOGETHER WITH ACCRUED INTEREST, IF ANY, AND ALL ADVANCEMENTS MADE BY THE MORTGAGEE UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS MORTGAGE.

Chapter 11

Debtors,

CASE NO. 09-36379-BKC-PGH
(Jointly Administered)

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR ENTRY OF BAR ORDER IN FAVOR OF [NAME]

THIS MATTER came before the Court on [DATE] at [TIME], upon the Liquidating Trustee's Motion to Approve Settlement with Michelle and David Harrold (the "Motion") [D.E. ____].¹ The Court reviewed the Motion, considered the arguments of counsel and is otherwise duly advised in the premises. Accordingly, the Court finds as follows:

In its Motion, the Liquidating Trustee, on behalf of the Debtors, seeks entry of an order barring certain claims against the Harrolds as described in detail below (the "Bar Order").

¹ Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Motion.

The Court has noted that notice of the Motion and the request for a Bar Order was given to those potentially interested parties identified on the service list referenced in D.E. _____. The Court has reviewed and considered the Motion, any other submissions to this Court and provided an opportunity to be heard to all persons requesting to be heard. Accordingly, it is

ORDERED as follows:

1. The Motion is GRANTED.
2. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334, and authority to enter this Order pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).
3. The form and means of the notice of the Bar Order and the Motion are determined to have been the best notice practicable under the circumstances and to be good and sufficient notice to all persons whose interests would or could be affected by this Order.
4. The Court has been apprised of the negotiations that preceded the Agreement and finds that the Motion and request for Bar Order is a result of arms'-length bargaining among the parties. There is no evidence that the settlement reached by the Trustee with the [NAME] is the result of collusion among the parties or that there has been any intent to prejudice the persons or entities that will be subject to the Settlement Order.
5. The Court finds that entry of this Order is appropriate in order to achieve the finality and repose that is contemplated as a term of the Proposed Settlement and that good cause therefore exists for the entry of this Order, and is fair and equitable. See In re U.S. Oil & Gas Litigation, 967 F.2d 489, 495-96 (11th Cir. 1992); Munford, Inc. v. Munford, Inc., 97 F.3d 449, 454-55 (11th Cir. 1996); In re Jiffy Lube Securities Litigation, 927 F.2d 155 (4th Cir. 1991); Eichenholtz v. Brennan, 52 F.3d 478 (3d Cir. 1995).

The following additional definitions apply to the provisions of this Order barring certain claims as set forth in paragraph 7 below:

"Releasors" shall mean (1) any creditors of either of the Debtors; (2) any limited partners of either of the Debtors and (3) any parties identified on Exhibit F attached to the Stipulation.

"Harrold Parties" shall mean David and Michelle Harrold and their children;

"Barred Claims" shall mean any and all direct, indirect and/or derivative Claims, whether known or unknown, by any and all Releasors against the Harrold Parties that relate in any manner whatsoever to the Debtors.

6. Except as expressly provided below, Releasors are permanently barred and enjoined from commencing, prosecuting, or asserting either directly or in any other capacity, against the Harrold Parties, any and all liabilities, judgments, rights, claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, third party claims, demands, suits, matters, obligations, damages, debts, losses, costs, actions and causes of action, of every kind and description, arising under common law, rule, regulation or statute, whether arising under state or federal law, whether presently known or unknown that any Releasor now has, ever had or may claim to have in the future that is a Barred Claim; provided that nothing in this Order shall (i) enjoin, impair or delay the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") from commencing or continuing any claims, causes of action, proceedings or investigations against any person or entity, including the Harrold Parties, or (ii) release or discharge any person or entity, including the Harrold Parties, from any claims, rights, powers or interests held or assertable by the SEC.

7. The Court retains jurisdiction to enforce or interpret this Order.

Debtors,

CASE NO. 09-36379-BKC-PGH
(Jointly Administered)

ORDER GRANTING THE LIQUIDATING TRUSTEE'S MOTION TO APPROVE
SETTLEMENT WITH MICHELLE AND DAVID HARROLD

THIS MATTER came before the Court on [DATE] at [TIME], upon the Liquidating Trustee's Motion to Approve Settlement with Michelle and David Harrold (the "Motion") [D.E. ____].¹ The Court reviewed the Motion, considered the arguments of counsel and is otherwise duly advised in the premises. Accordingly, the Court finds as follows:

In its Motion, the Liquidating Trustee, on behalf of the Debtors, seeks entry of an order barring certain claims against the Harrolds as described in detail below (the "Bar Order").

The Court has noted that notice of the Motion and the request for a Bar Order was given to those potentially interested parties identified on the service list referenced in D.E. _____. The Court has reviewed and considered the Motion, any other submissions to this Court and provided an opportunity to be heard to all persons requesting to be heard. Accordingly, it is

ORDERED as follows:

1. The Motion is GRANTED. The Settlement is approved.
2. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334, and authority to enter this Order pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).
3. The form and means of the notice of the Bar Order and the Motion are determined to have been the best notice practicable under the circumstances and to be good and sufficient notice to all persons whose interests would or could be affected by this Order.
4. The Court has been apprised of the negotiations that preceded the Agreement and finds that the Motion and request for Bar Order is a result of arms'-length bargaining among the parties. There is no evidence that the settlement reached by the Trustee with the Harrolds is the result of collusion among the parties or that there has been any intent to prejudice the persons or entities that will be subject to this Order.
5. The Court finds that entry of this Order is appropriate in order to achieve the finality and repose that is contemplated as a term of the Proposed Settlement and that good cause therefore exists for the entry of this Order, and is fair and equitable. See In re U.S. Oil & Gas Litigation, 967 F.2d 489, 495-96 (11th Cir. 1992); Munford, Inc. v. Munford, Inc., 97 F.3d 449, 454-55 (11th Cir. 1996); In re Jiffy Lube Securities Litigation, 927 F.2d 155 (4th Cir. 1991); Eichenholtz v. Brennan, 52 F.3d 478 (3d Cir. 1995).
6. The following additional definitions apply to the provisions of this Order barring certain claims as set forth in paragraph 7 below:

"Releasors" shall mean (1) any creditors of either of the Debtors; (2) any limited partners of either of the Debtors and (3) any parties identified on Exhibit F attached to the Stipulation.

"Harrold Parties" shall mean David and Michelle Harrold and their children;

"Barred Claims" shall mean any and all direct, indirect and/or derivative Claims, whether known or unknown, by any and all Releasors against the Harrold Parties that relate in any manner whatsoever to the Debtors.

7. Except as expressly provided below, Releasors are permanently barred and enjoined from commencing, prosecuting, or asserting either directly or in any other capacity, against the Harrold Parties, any and all liabilities, judgments, rights, claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, third party claims, demands, suits, matters, obligations, damages, debts, losses, costs, actions and causes of action, of every kind and description, arising under common law, rule, regulation or statute, whether arising under state or federal law, whether presently known or unknown that any Releasor now has, ever had or may claim to have in the future that is a Barred Claim; provided that nothing in this Order shall (i) enjoin, impair or delay the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") from commencing or continuing any claims, causes of action, proceedings or investigations against any person or entity, including the Harrold Parties, or (ii) release or discharge any person or entity, including the Harrold Parties, from any claims, rights, powers or interests held or assertable by the SEC.

8. The Court retains jurisdiction to enforce or interpret this Order.

9. The Contingency Fee is approved and shall be paid without the need of further Court Order. The Contingency Fee, subject to the Pro Rata Allocation Formula, shall be paid in the following manner:

- a. Upon receipt of the cash consideration to be paid by the Harrolds, 10% of the amount received by each of the Debtors;
- b. Upon the Debtors' receipt of any of the Harrolds tax refund for 2009, 10% of the amount received by each of the Debtors;
- c. Upon the Harrolds' paying the Note securing the mortgage on their homestead property, 10% of the amount received by each of the Debtors; and

- d. In the event Liquidating Trustee elects to take possession, for the benefit of the Debtors, any entity then held by the Harrolds and later sells such entity, 10% of any gross sales price received by each of the Debtors.
