You and Wells Fargo

Thank you for being a loyal Wells Fargo customer. We value your trust in our company and look forward to continuing to serve you with your financial needs.

IMPORTANT ACCOUNT INFORMATION

Effective August 11, 2014, we are changing the way we process your automatic payments (preauthorized "ACH" transactions) to your account. We will no longer process these transactions in highest to lowest dollar amount. We will now process these transactions based on the date and time they are received by Wells Fargo for payment. If there are multiple transactions during the day, the transaction type (ACH) will be sorted by time, and if the date and time is the same or unknown, then we process these transactions lowest to highest dollar amount.

Beginning September 17, 2014, we will include more transactions as "pending" withdrawals from your account during the day. A "pending" transaction is one you have completed and that Wells Fargo is aware of, but has not yet been fully processed for payment from your account. Automatic payments were previously processed from your account only during our nightly processing. We will now display them as "pending" withdrawals and your available balance will be reduced when they are received by us. Your available balance is calculated based on transactions known to Wells Fargo. By including these pending withdrawals in your account's available balance during the day, we provide you with additional information about your available balance to help you avoid spending more than you have in your account. However, because the bank does not know of all outstanding transactions, you still need to keep independent track of your spending in order to avoid overdrafts or returned items.

For additional information, see your Account Agreement, talk with a local banker, or call the number on the top of your statement.

Notable Information For You...

When opening up new accounts, 2 steps are required to stay in banking compliance - 1) applying for a TIN (if the estate doesn't already have one) and 2) submitting signed W-9s within 30 days.

Use InstaTIN from within the BMS software and apply with just 1 click. (Please continue to obtain TINs from the IRS for non-Chapter 7 cases.)

It's easy to submit your W-9s using eSign - just look for an alert on the home or banking screens which will remind you that these important tax documents need to be turned in to help you avoid banking transaction delays in the future.
